Description

Hand raised silver decorative bowl and cover, surmounted by a finial inset with an amber coloured gemstone that rests on a raised, hand chased Tudor rose. The bowl base and rim feature pretty beaded mounts, all of which makes this a beautiful example of late Arts & Crafts era workmanship.

The core characteristics of the Arts and Crafts movement are a belief in craftsmanship which stresses the inherent beauty of the material, the importance of nature as inspiration, and the value of simplicity, utility, and beauty.
