Description

As good antique Edwardian example of the Arts & Crafts period of design, this silver cup or vase, with its chevron handles and punched beading creates an elegant and interesting form.

The Arts & Crafts movement emerged from a disenchantment with the impersonal, mechanised direction of society in the 19th century, and sought to return to a simpler, more fulfilling way of living. The movement was admired for its use of high quality materials and for its emphasis on utility in design.
