Height: 350 mm (13.78")

Description

Heavy gauge model of a leaping salmon, cast in sterling silver and finely hand chased to give realistic and remarkable lifelike detail.

The fish is 250mm (10") long and set on a polished marble base. Customers can select the marble of their choice and, as an alternative, the base can be created from another natural stone or wood.

Please note that this piece is made to order so please get in touch to discuss your requirements.
