Description

Our corgi Christmas tree decoration is a tribute to the loyalty, royalty and charm that corgis symbolise. Each corgi is cast in solid sterling silver and carefully hand-finished, bringing a lifelike charm to this unique piece. Handcrafted in meticulous detail its luminous sheen reflects the glow of Christmas lights making it a timeless keepsake for all those Christmases to come. Embodying the enduring spirit of the festive season means it is the perfect stocking or Christmas cracker filler.

Fond of corgis since she was a small child, Queen Elizabeth II owned more than 30 corgis from her accession in 1952 until her death in 2022. The royal corgis were globally publicised (as in the cover photo and feature article of Vanity Fair's Summer 2016 edition). They have been depicted and immortalised in various statues, professional photographs and paintings. For instance, the crown coin commemorating the Golden Jubilee of Elizabeth II depicts the Queen with a corgi.
