Description

Charming three-piece Arts & Crafts style sterling silver tea set of an unusual droplet-shaped design and diminutive proportions. This charming silver tea set was made in the Edwardian era, in the early 20th century, and is a perfect bachelor tea set comprising a silver teapot, milk jug and sugar bowl, with a capacity for two or three cups of your favourite brew.

The teapot features a hinged cover, and ball-shaped heat-resistant Bakelite finial that will stay cool to the touch. Bakelite was the first truly synthetic plastic and was one of the innovative materials embraced by the Arts & Crafts movement in the 1900s. The teapot's handle is stitched with a durable and stylish leather heat protector, and the weight given is for all three pieces and includes the teapot handle.

Each piece is engraved with a contemporary family crest and could be applied to a number of families, including: Boden, Carey, Hamlyn, Killicke, Lachlan, Magawley, O'Shea, Sinnott.
