Description

Two cylindrical silver beakers, each with a curved base and moulded rim and mounted on three scrolled leaf pattern supports. Of differing sizes and featuring their original gilded interiors, they were made in 1896 and 1914, both by Thomas of Bond Street and retailed in leather and velvet display box by R&S Garrard, Crown Jeweller to Queen Victoria.

The individual dimensions are:
Small beaker: 150g, height 85mm, diameter 74mm
Large beaker: 222g, height 95mm, diameter 82mm
