Description

Stylish silver-plated cocktail shaker from the Art Deco period and featuring indented, concave banding around the lower portion of the flask. This silver-plated cocktail shaker typifies the Art Deco design cues of the period.

Art Deco was the popular design style spreading across Europe in the 1920s and 1930s and characterised especially by sleek geometric or stylised forms. It represented luxury, glamour, exuberance, and faith in social and technological progress. For that reason silver cocktail and barware were popular categories of goods to reflect the style of the time.
