Description

A highly unusual and attractive Victorian wine or champagne cooler with original liner and lid. The campana shaped body is hand-chased with grape vine decoration and has two cast vine leaf handles. The similarly detailed lid opens to reveal a fully hallmarked silver liner to hold a bottle.

The poignant inscription reads:

PRESENTED BY MISS WILSON TO Mrs Wemyss of Denbrae
as a token of affectionate REGARD for HERSELF and as a MEMORIAL OF GRATITUDE for important services rendered by her late LAMENTED HUSBAND
David Wemyss Esquire to the DONOR and her departed Brother and Sister
St Andrews
17 April 1843
