Description

This silver model is a scale replica of an American Civil War six-pounder, smooth-bore cannon, made entirely by hand in sterling silver. It is from our own silversmith's private collection and every part has been captured in fine detail. From the hinged barrel and rolling wheels to the removable rods, all parts are fully hallmarked.

This is an example of a bespoke commission. Do get in touch to discuss your own ideas; we can make anything in silver.
