Description

Stylish, modern silver candelabrum made in 1960 by Asprey & Co, jewellers to The Crown. The panelled round base holds four elegantly curved arms, each surmounted by a silver candleholder and drip pan. It is a substantial piece and is not filled.

Founded in 1781 by William Asprey, Asprey & Co advertised "articles of exclusive design and high quality to endow with richness and beauty the table and homes of people of refinement and discernment".
