Description

A charming pair of novelty sterling silver pepper pots made by in 1896 & 1906. The chauffeur of 1906 is a caricature of a character from the popular musical comedy 'Mr Popple of Ippleton'. While both pieces are rare items, the chauffeur is a well know and much sought after example of the genre while the maid is even more unusual.

They were made by Cornelius Saunders & Francis Shepherd and bear Chester hallmarks for 1906. The chauffeur is stamped with the design registration number 490421 and the maid with number 255268
