Antique silver & glass butter dish

George Adams

£1,950

REF: 5095

Diameter: 180 mm (7.09")

Description

Made by one of the finest silversmiths of the Victorian era, this is a classically elegant antique butter dish with its original and traditional churn-shaped glass body. The silver cover, with detachable finial, and base are hand engraved and the detail is particularly sharp.

Dimension given is for the silver base plate.
