Description

Classic, Victorian Queen-Anne-style three-piece silver tea set with all pieces featuring the characteristic half-fluted bodies. Although the pattern is referred to as Queen Anne style, it is in fact more reminiscent of the neoclassical revival era of the 1790s.

The elegant silver teapot pours perfectly and is fitted with an ebonised fruitwood handle and finial, while the domed cover features a jeweller's flush hinge, a mark of superior quality. The interiors of the sugar bowl and milk jug are gilded.

The capacity of the teapot is 600ml (20 fl oz); perfect for three to four cups of your favourite tea.
