Description

An eight-sided, high Art Deco silver drinks tray of a superior quality. Its simple, elongated and slender form with shallow stepped gallery, personifies the Art Deco style of the period. The rectangular handles are similarly stepped with and feature a small shield detail on either end.

This silver tray is perfect for serving drinks and cocktails but also suited to offering canapés or sandwiches.

The length listed includes the handles. The usable surface is 515mm x 255mm (20¼" x 10").

Art Deco was the popular design style spreading across Europe in the 1920s and 1930s and characterised especially by sleek geometric or stylised forms. It represented luxury, glamour, exuberance, and faith in social and technological progress. For that reason silver cocktail and barware were popular categories of goods to reflect the style of the time.
