Description

No longer worry about your favourite drink being raided by the uninvited. This wonderful pair of Art Deco decanters has a silver lock on each that can only be opened with their own keys.

Each decanter has a plain cut oblong body with bevelled edging. The faceted crystal stoppers are locked by a hinged silver tag which clips into the silver lock on the collar. This fully working mechanism is operated by a removable key.

The decanters are identical and the dimensions shown are for one decanter only.
